Tomas Van Den Spiegel re-elected as ULEB President for Third Consecutive Term

Brussels, October 23, 2024 – During an extraordinary ULEB General Assembly, Tomas Van Den Spiegel was unanimously re-elected as ULEB President for a third consecutive 4-year term. Van Den Spiegel, who has led the Union of European Leagues of Basketball (ULEB) since 2016, will continue his tenure at the helm of the organization, with a focus on advancing the development of its member leagues across Europe.

"I am honored to have the trust of ULEB's members as we continue our mission to strengthen our position. Times are challenging for club basketball in Europe but by working together as national leagues we intend to take up a proactive role towards the other stakeholders in the European basketball landscape. We want to be able to offer the pan-European basketball fan a strong and clear basketball product in the near future." said Van Den Spiegel.
